

Name of Program: Domestic Violence Legal Services

Program Description: This legal program is for battered women in need of legal assistance. The legal advocate provides assistance with Temporary Restraining Orders (TRO), court accompaniment, advocacy services, information and referrals. Services available Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (some evenings). Transportation to court appearances may be provided.

Eligibility Criteria: Victims of Intimate Partner Violence only, due to funding requirements.

Referral Sources: Community members, police, counselors, self-referral.

Referral Procedures: Call 408.779.2113 to set up appointment. Services available in English and Spanish.

Client Fees and Payment Requirements: None.

Contacts:                    Legal Advocate – Anita Wilson 408-776-6206
                                         Program Director – Perla Flores 408-776-6294

Notes / Additional Information: The advocate is not an attorney and cannot give legal advice