Safety In the Field
9:00 am – 11:00 am
Community Room

SANTA CLARA COUNTY BEHAVIORAL HEALTH PROVIDERS

Course Description: In this course, participants will learn about the importance of safety when working in community-based behavioral health settings. It will teach learners how to use safety precautions while working in the field delivering services and conducting meetings in client's homes.

Learning Objectives:

1. To understand the principals of preparation and be able to apply them in the four main areas: car, phone, dress and location.
2. To be able to assess the environment and the client safety throughout the four stages of contact: pre-arrival, approach, first contact and ongoing.
3. To know how to respond should staff safety become a concern at any point in the four stages.

About the Trainor:

Matthew Renzi is an Associate Professional Clinical Counselor working as a therapist on the Intensive Care Management Team.
